Ministry Team

JACQUES NADEAU

Jacques is a former Police Officer whom the Lord called into pastoral ministry. He has been Pastor at Newcastle Fellowship Baptist Church, Ontario since 2003. He longs to see the Holy Spirit transform God's people into a people of prayer, purity and passion. He is happily married to his best friend Tatiana, and they have two godly sons, two precious daughters-in-law, and five beloved grandsons. Tatiana will share her life-story on Saturday night.

DEREK MAXWELL

Derek, who serves as General Director of Slavic Gospel Association UK, is committed to maintaining the mission's Biblical ethos and vision of reaching Slavic nations with the Gospel. His responsibilities are varied, including preaching and lecturing in Eastern Europe and Central Asia, while also engaging in extensive deputation work throughout the British Isles. He is married to Carole and they have two grown-up children.

TOM SHAW

Tom worked with The Faith Mission before entering the Congregational Ministry where he served for over forty years. He was also the President of The Faith Mission for about thirty years and has travelled extensively overseas, ministering God's Word. He is married to Mabel and they have two grown-up children, Stephen and Ruth, and three grandchildren. Ruth and her husband, Nigel, work with The Faith Mission in the South West of England.

ANDREW MULLAN

Andrew is passionate about expository preaching and looks forward to sharing at the Convention. His focus in ministry is to see the Gospel proclaimed locally and globally. After completing his PhD at the University of Glasgow, he had opportunity to lecture doctrine and church history in Nairobi.
